MEMORANDUM FOR: Police Commissioner

Re: NYPD v. Police Officer Shatorra Foster
Disciplinary Case No. C-030622

The Department has reviewed the proposed decision of Deputy Commissioner – Trials (DCT) Rosemarie Maldonado regarding the disciplinary trial of Police Officer Shatorra Foster in the above-captioned matter. The Department submits the following comments regarding that draft decision.

The Department agrees with the Court's finding that Police Officer Foster is guilty of the charged misconduct, and also agrees with the Court's recommendation that Police Officer Foster be dismissed from employment by the New York City Police Department. As Commissioner Maldonado correctly pointed out in her proposed decision, Police Officer Foster's "continued employment is untenable."

Accordingly, the Department urges that, based on the overwhelming evidence of Respondent's shocking misconduct adduced at the disciplinary trial, Commissioner Maldonado's findings and recommendations be approved, and that Police Officer Foster be dismissed from employment by the New York City Police Department.

Respectfully submitted,

David H. Green
